

FORMER ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL BRYDEN REPORTED WOUNDED

Information was received by Mr. A. Bryden, 9110-10th street, Edmonton, on Saturday last that Lance Corp. R. B. Bryden, late assistant principal of Wainwright schools, who enlisted with the Alberta company of the Western Universities Battalion, and went overseas in 1916, but who drafted into First Canadian Mounted Rifles, has been admitted to Graylingwood Hospital, Chichester, England, suffering from gunshot wounds in the leg. Mr. Bryden has been in the trenches for 17 months, and has had several narrow calls during that time. Once a piece of shrapnel would have ended his career had it not been for his steel helmet; another piece of shrapnel on another occasion tore the shoulder off his tunic, and once last year he was slightly gassed.

The Star on behalf of the many local friends of Corp. Bryden extends the hope that the injury may not be severe; that he may speedily recover so as to return to the peace and security of things six thousand miles from the Hun.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT

A rather serious accident occurred on Monday evening.

Two boys Jack Little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sutherland and "Buster" Browne, little son of the proprietor of the Wainwright Hotel, were driving a car with a hay rack to Creighton's at Sheepskin flats. Going down the steep grade to the flats the hay rack slid forward upon the team which forthwith bolted. They finally landed in a poplar bluff upsetting the rack, spraining young Sutherlands ankle and breaking the left arm of young Browne.

The boys were rushed into town to Dr. Middlemass in Mr. Verne Graham's car.

Big reductions on all summer merchandise at Fraser's.

Mrs. L. D. Goldworthy has returned from a week's visit with Edmonton friends.

Miss Vera Linpert has accepted a position as teacher at the Mayfield school.

W. E. Zink, left last Friday for points in eastern Ontario to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Pie Jack Blason of Calgary forces in home on a six week's harvest furlough.

Alexander Kennedy, who has been spending his vacation with relatives in North Dakota, returned to town last week.

Herbert Smith, who has been making hay while the sun shines at Kin-sella spent the week-end with his family.

Band practice will be held in the band room on Friday night of this week. A full attendance of members is requested.

We cordially invite everyone in the Wainwright district to visit our store on Saturday afternoon, when we will serve afternoon tea from 3 to 6 p.m.—F. E. Fraser & Co.

E. B. Chandler, Manager of the Star is holidaying at Wetaskiwin this week. He is accompanied by Mrs. Chandler and family. The editor will blow his "Go from me, come to me" at the Wetaskiwin fair being held there this week.

Mrs. Rex Symes, of Winnipeg is visiting with her sister Mrs. B. N. Fraser. Mrs. Symes is quite taken with Alberta climate and the Wainwright district in particular. Upon her return to Winnipeg she hopes to persuade Mr. Symes to come west, and grow wheat in place of buying it as now.

BASEBALL GAME

Considerable good form was shown in the game which took place on the school grounds Monday evening. The local fans are now confident of collecting an aggregation of ball artists that will develop into a roster's delight, some combination.

The game was between the Town of Wainwright and the G.T.P. ended in a victory for the former with a score of ten to two.

It was a good game but the railroad boys lacked support for their pitcher and catcher who pulled off some good work.

The line up was as follows:
Town G.T.P.
Taft c Pawling
Anderson p Livingston
McFadden 1st b Kiffoyle
Siddall 2nd b Conrad
Elder 3rd b Fenby
Simpson ss Sinclair
Quistfield field Campbell
Walker 4th b Tolmie
Isted c
Umpire—E. L. Cork.

Miss Bessie Aldridge has returned from a pleasant vacation spent at Edmonton and has again taken up her duties as stenographer at the law office of May & Simpson.

THREE MORE DAYS GRACE FOR DRAFT EVADERS TO REPORT

In last week's issue of the Star was published a Royal Proclamation which is of vital interest to any young man who was called to the colors under the Military Service Act of 1917.

A careful perusal of the matter of the proclamation would show that for duty on or before the twenty-fourth day of August, which falls on Saturday of this week, an amnesty or pardon will be granted to him and no penalty imposed upon him for having these ten months, since October 13th of last year, refused to obey the law.

This is leniency carried to great length after four years of war, when several hundred thousands of men from fifteen to sixty years of age (hundreds having falsely declared their age in order to serve) have suffered and are suffering and in thousands of instances have died in suffering for the cause of democracy and freedom, the hand of clemency is extended, and men, who are really criminals under a sane and just law, are invited to take their place in the ranks of honour with no legal stigma attached to them.

Surely if a young man has a single drop of red blood in his veins this will reach him.

To look at the other side for a moment, let any man beware who thinks that the government of this country is easy. The government of this country owes a duty to those of its citizens who have nobly served or are nobly serving and in the discharge of that duty it will be fully endorsed should it drastically punish those who have failed in theirs.

After Saturday, next the draft evaders will be a man hunted, having no place to flee, a citizen whom his country will not own, a criminal at large.

Everyone, meet everyone else at our afternoon tea Saturday, August 24th—F. E. Fraser & Co.

Ross Snyder, who was visiting with friends and relatives here for the past week returned to his home in Wetaskiwin on Saturday last.

A farewell party to Miss Dea was given by her friends on Tuesday evening in the rooms of Mrs. Heinrich, Armstrong Block. A large number were present, games were played and delicious refreshments served. The party broke up with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

WAINWRIGHT FAMILY DOING ITS' BIT—FRANK C. HORN RETURNS FROM OVERSEAS

It is with pleasure that the citizens of Wainwright welcome upon his return from overseas another of their soldier representatives in the person of Pte. Frank Horn.

Pte. Horn did not see service in France being one of those who have suffered for the cause of freedom during the course of training, but who have been denied by some mischance the glory of having participated in the real work of punishing the Hun. Whilst handling a retiver horse his left arm was dislocated and has been rendered practically useless as a result of imperfect re-setting. Frank spent some time since returning from England, driving a traction in the vicinity of Winnipeg. He is intending to commence education at the farm at Gilt Edge.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Horn and daughter have resided in Wainwright since this spring having found it impossible to continue farming with the boys away.

In Mr. Horn we have an instance of that type of citizen which has made the British Empire great. A native of the town of Leyburn in Yorkshire, England.

Mr. Horn was forty years a banker and in that capacity gathered the information, experience and attitude towards things which characterize the broad visioned citizen of the world.

He was retired on pension some years ago and with Mrs. Horn and daughter came to this side of the world to see the boys in 1913. The eldest son, Ernest R. is also a banker in the town of Richmond, England but is seen almost every night in the week in uniform as a member of the Richmond guards, performing duties by no means free from the excitement of war in these days of an air-invaded, darkened England.

Of his son Charlie, Mr. Horn has but little news. It will be remembered by readers of the Star that Charlie was taken prisoner by the Germans at Ypres in June 1916. He writes cheerful letters, but like all such letters from the unfortunate men who are paying the price of liberty by

CHURCH OF ENGLAND SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC POSPONED

We are all delighted to see the rain but the kiddies and friends of St. Thomas' Sunday school would like to have received the showers of blessing on some day other than this. However! there is yet another day; and the pleasures of anticipation will have to be substituted for the dearer joys of realization for one more week. All being well the picnic will take place next Wednesday, August 28th. Then all aboard for Clear Lake and a thorough good time.

AGENTS AND OPERATORS MEET AT WAINWRIGHT

A meeting of agents and operators of Sup. Watson's division in connection with the order of Railroad Telegraphers was held at Wainwright on Sunday, Aug. 19th at which general working conditions and business was discussed.

Those present were H. F. Jones, agent, Irma; S. Constantine, agent, Holden; O. Hawthorne, agent, Chaudhry; R. Patterson, agent, Scott; M. N. Brewer, General Chairman, O.R.T. and agent Atwater; H. McCulloch, agent, Stoney Plain; J. Jemmett, agent, Ennisville; Miss Smith, operator, Telford; Miss Parry, operator, Edmonton; J. Tolmie and V. D. Sibbald, operators, Wainwright; A. G. Sinclair, agent, Wainwright; W. Parr, agent, Reford; J. Avelch, operator, Unity and H. Gurewyl, Local Chairman, O.R.T. and agent, Spruce Grove.

ENDORSES ACTION

S. D. Mills, secretary of the Wainwright Agricultural Society has received a letter from Mr. Alex. Galbraith, Superintendent of Fairs for Alberta in which while regretting the circumstances necessitating the withdrawal of our annual fair, he expresses his opinion that it is the wisest course, and hopes that our district will be more favored next year.

It certainly is ironical that when despite a partial failure of crops, in common with the whole west, our local communities had cheerfully faced the issue and decided to do "business as usual," the elements should take matters in hand and make a wreck of the entire building plant of the agricultural Society. Nil Desperandum.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Simpson, left on Tuesday by motor on their return trip to Lethbridge accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Simpson and baby and Mrs. E. L. Lilley, mother of Mrs. W. E. Simpson.

Bandmaster R. B. Carbert, of the 1st Depot Battalion Band, Calgary arrived in town on Monday to visit his mother Mrs. E. Carbert for a few days.

MEETINGS TO BE HELD IN ADJACENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

Several meetings have been held in Wainwright in the interests of furthering the organization of a consolidated school district, comprising the districts of Trafalgar, Sydenham, Ascut and the unorganized territory adjacent to Wainwright. Difficultly has been met in the inclusion of certain districts near town owing to misunderstanding, giving rise to unfounded suspicions.

Mr. R. A. Barron, supervisor of Consolidated Schools, Edmonton, has charge of the work of organization and at the last meeting held in Wainwright, it was thought advisable to arrange a series of meetings in each of the surrounding school districts.

With this in view a meeting will be held at the afternoon of Wednesday, September 4th, to be held in Trafalgar school, and in the evening at Sydenham school, and on the following day at Ascut school. The definite time of meetings will be announced later. Mr. Barron will be present at these meetings and will explain the workings of the consolidation scheme and the arranging of any financial difficulties that may come up.

Every person interested in this work of better educational facilities should be on hand at the meetings.

Rev. Moody, who has been conducting the service in St. Andrews church for the past three months leaves this week for Manulife where he will be in charge of the services there for the next two weeks.

PROPOSED HOSPITAL SCHEME IS TURNED DOWN BY OFFICIALS

* Just before going to press word was received by Mr. H. V. Pawling from the secretary of the Public Utilities Commission that approval of the proposed Wainwright Municipal Hospital scheme could not be granted.

* Two considerations affected the decision, viz—divided opinions in this district and the proposal to place the management of the three hospitals under one board which is thought by the secretary to be impracticable.

* As the old saw has it "There are always two ways at twice" It is a case of "try again."

PRINCIPAL BRODIE TAKES OBJECTION, TO STAR ARTICLE

EDITOR STAR

In your issue of August 14th under the caption "High School Exams" appears an article which suggests that the schools throughout the province, including Wainwright High School, had an exceptionally large number of failures this year, at the Departmental Examination. The inference was drawn, that many pupils were so discouraged that they did not intend to continue their school work.

The article was evidently written in the kindest spirit towards those students who had failed, but is in error in stating that their number was overwhelmingly large. In the whole province, five candidates were on grades VIII to XII inclusive, and 3000 passed, being a percentage of seventy-four.

Wainwright High School sent up 35 candidates and of these 17 passed in full, being a percentage of seventy-seven. Let us remember that the exceptionally severe winter interfered greatly with the attendance of those living at a distance. Also on account of small pox quarantine the school was closed for a fortnight at a very crucial time of the spring review.

Even after re-opening so many pupils were suffering from vaccination that the work was greatly hampered. Finally, no pressure other than a fair statement of chances is even used to direct to the exam. On from the Star.

With these facts in mind, it would not have been surprising had the failures been numerous. As a matter of fact, the local school did decidedly better than the provincial average, which surely leaves no room for discouragement, rather much reverse. It is true that in one class, grade XII, some of the papers were more difficult than usual, but the young man most affected by that hardship is very far from being so disheartened as to give up in despair. As it is, he has only now to write on four papers to obtain full standing.

This is not intended as a bit of puff for the Wainwright Schools, though we might have some gratification on the score of results. The number of passes is not, as every teacher knows, the best criterion of school efficiency. But I would be very sorry if through lack of knowledge of the facts, any of the scholars should be discouraged.

As the list as published omitted the names of a number of successful candidates, I give it here in full. All the students named obtained standing as stated.

Thanking you for your space,
W. S. BRODIE,
Principal of Schools.

Successful Candidates:
XII—Vera Linpert, Murray Pawling (4 papers yet to write).

VERMILION BOY HAD THRILLING ADVENTURE WITH THE GERMANS

A thrilling story of the adventure of a Vermilion boy at the front is told by a war correspondent in the Philadelphia Public Ledger. The writer says:

Private John Phillips, an artilleryman in a regiment of heavy guns, living in Vermilion, Alberta, Canada, stole away from his battery on Thursday night in quest of souvenirs in trenches held by the Germans before the morning attack. He entered the mouth of a hillside cave and near the entrance discovered the body of a German. Bending over to make sure that the man was dead and not in need of assistance, he was suddenly jumped upon by four Germans, who came from the rear of the cave. A terrific fight followed in the darkness, with Phillips using his revolver freely. In the end he came out of the cave with two prisoners, leaving two more dead behind. When he presented his "souvenirs" to his battery commander, he was forgiven for having taken absence without leave.

HUNS TURN LIQUID GAS ON ARMED PRISONERS IN DEEPEST TRENCHES

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The first details have been officially published of gross outrages, perhaps unparalleled for fiendish cruelty, upon the British prisoners and wounded men in March last. The facts are authenticated by sworn statements of Scottish soldiers who were of the party ill-treated.

A private of the Royal Highlanders tells how he and a number of his comrades were surrounded and compelled to surrender near Monchy on the 28th of March. "Our rifles and equipment were taken from us. We consisted of one officer and 15 men, 10 of whom were wounded. We were lined up on their original front line trench and left without a guard for some time. Then a German officer and two men appeared on the edge of the trench. One man carried a container on his back and the other was armed with a rifle and a short bayonet. The officer carried a revolver. The officer gave an order and the man with the container turned a stream of liquid fire straight down the trench in which we were standing; he could plainly see we were unarmed, but he continued to play on us for six or seven minutes."

The witness added that he and a few companions who were able to move scrambled down the communication trench and got over the top to the British lines. Another private says that after he and some other prisoners went about six feet deep—nine feet had been captured and disarmed they were marched down to the trenches wide and from time to time twelve feet long. The sides were perpendicular except one which sloped. The prisoners were tightly packed in this enclosure.
Two Germans appeared at the entrance of the enclosure.

"One had a rifle or equipment," continued the private. "He carried a revolver and appeared to be an officer.
The other also had no equipment but had strapped on his back a cylinder with a flexible pipe over the shoulder and the end of which he carried in his hand. Just as he reached the entrance to the enclosure, a flame spurted out in a stream from the pipe and caught the men who were nearest to the entrance. The other men lay in heaps around and partly on me.
I heard a hissing sound for a short time, then it stopped and started again. During this time the party were shrieking and writhing about.
The flames reached back to where I was. My overcoat and tunic caught fire. By this time all the men were on the ground."

This soldier managed to crawl up the slope and get away. Another private shows how an officer wounded in the head and foot along with four wounded and three unwounded men including the narrator, were in an old trench, when two Germans came up with liquid fire. One stood with a revolver in his hand and ordered the party to get back to the German lines. The narrator's hands and right ear were burned. The other party managed to run away and reach the British lines. The Germans must either have suffocated or burned all the five wounded men. Nothing further was heard of these wounded.

The British government has protested to the German government against these outrages.

FATTENING OF CHICKENS

The profits obtained from marketing lean, poorly finished, unfinished chickens are so small as to be frequently discouraging. Many of the packing houses and larger produce dealers find it necessary to go to considerable expense to provide the necessary premises and equipment to properly finish such poultry. The best place to feed poultry is on the farm, and, if it pays the packing houses to take the trouble, it obviously would be good business to do the work on the farm.

Proper feeding and finishing will not only greatly increase the weight of the birds, but will also enhance the value of every ounce of flesh on the carcass, and greatly reduce the proportion of offal in relation to the amount of edible meat.

There is generally a difference of from three to seven cents per pound in the price paid for well-fleshed birds as compared with lean, unfinished stock put off the range.

There is always a market for prime quality poultry, while the poorer quality has to be sold at whatever price can be obtained, depending on the market and the amount of effort put forth on the part of the seller.

Birds generally make the greatest gain when about three to four months of age, and the average birds make the most economical gains during the first two weeks of special feeding.

Chickens can be readily taught to feed by lamphlight; this is a great convenience, as it is desirable that the time of feeding be spaced as nearly as possible twelve hours apart.

The crate system of feeding is much more economical and efficient. In practicing this method one is able to carefully note the progress being made by each bird and the feeding period of the more thrifty can often be shortened or lengthened as desired. Also the flesh of the crate-fed birds is invariably softer than that of pen fed birds.

For amplification of the foregoing information apply to the publications branch, Department of Agriculture, for bulletin No. 88 of the Division of Poultry of the Experimental Farms entitled "Preparing Poultry Produce for Market."

EDMONTON EDITOR
IN FLIGHT OVER
CITY OF LONDON

The Canadian journalists have had an opportunity of seeing and testing the part being played by that great ain the mastery of the air and will probably prove one of the deciding factors in the victory of the allies," according to John Weld, of London, Ont., Farmer's Advocate.

The Canadians proceeded to a great airdrome on the outskirts of a London where some of them made a flight over London in a huge bombing airplane, the latest type of which on this occasion made its first practical flight.

Two trios were made up by this machine, which carried on its first flight M. R. Jennings, of Edmonton; W. R. McCurdy, of Halifax; Fernand Rinfret, of Montreal, and Hon. Frank Carroll, of Quebec.

They also went up in a smaller machine which only took one passenger.

W. F. Kerr, of Regina, and Noe Chasse, of Quebec were the airmen in two trips, the pilots giving an exhibition of fancy flying. The other members of the party who were present, loudly cheered those who took the flights when they came down and showered them with congratulations. Previous to the visit to the airdrome, the newspapermen and a few others were entertained to luncheon by Sir George Perley, Canadian high com-

Irma Fair Successful— Local Man Carries Off Number Horse Prizes

Fine weather favored the officials and patrons of the Irma Agricultural Society at their ninth annual fair on Wednesday of last week. In fact the weather was probably a little too fine a shower or two might have caused some of the farmers who are making hay while the sun shines to lay off work for a while and add to the numbers present at the fair. However, the attendance was good and those present certainly enjoyed a good day. Proof was exhibited in the pavilion that the frost of July 24th did less damage to the district around Irma than some other parts of the west, in the shape of some samples of really good well filled grain.

There was also evidence of the excellent fodder growing capabilities of the district in the exhibition of grass and fodder samples. One of the alfalfa sheaves shown certainly demonstrated the possibilities of this farming area in the way of producing the most valuable of grasses.

H. W. Scott, district agent of the provincial department of agriculture, who acted as judge of grains, grasses and vegetables expressed great pleasure at the samples of unfrozen wheat and remarked when judging the grass exhibit that if the farmers of Irma district were fully alive to the value and possibilities of alfalfa it would mean a great increase in the agricultural wealth of the locality.

MIXED FARMING IN THE WEST

The lure of the golden wheat has drawn many thousands to this western country to try their fortunes in what has been more or less overdrawn possibilities, in raising grain. The vast fertile fields of this country have produced many millions of dollars of wheat through the sale of wheat. Hundreds have come to the country and with the one aim—to raise enough wheat to make a fortune and then retire to some easier way of life.

The history of the Dakotas and Minnesota is being lived over again in Alberta. Every man who operates a farm has been expected to put every acre he can into wheat and also every dollar that he may own or can borrow. If weather conditions are good, he reaps the benefit of his work, and is able to get a percentage on his money greater than in any other line of business.

These things are to be seen everywhere. But there is another side of the question. Weather conditions may not be the best; frosts come once in a while, hail may hit you, or dry weather may reduce the yield. Another point is the gradual deterioration of the soil under the strain of growing the same thing year after year.

Under this method of farming, the advent of a failure in the crops leaves no other source of income to provide for the living expenses until the next year. Credit has to be provided for merchants are compelled to carry long accounts, and in order to do this they must collect sufficient profit to cover the interest on their money. Many business men simply hang out their "no credit" signs and more or less inconveniences is experienced by the customer.

There is only one solution to the successful operation of a farm. In order to have a prosperous community there must be a means of providing a steady source of income, so that business may be stabilized instead of spasmodic. When the element of chance is removed from farming, the banks will be in a position to offer greater assistance. Merchants will not hesitate to do the best for the farmer. Business will not be done on future prospects, but on present value. Most of the trouble and hard times that come upon a community is due in a measure to the habit of westerners spending their money long before they get it. They deal with the future. A farmer will buy on the money that he will receive from the crop he expects to harvest in the fall.

The safest method of successful farming in this northern country, is that of mixed farming—not putting all your eggs in one basket. There is always feed here, but there is not always a bumper crop. Mixed farming cannot help but pay. There is a demand for cream alone that will be good for many years to come. A dozen milk cows will produce sufficient income to keep the wolf from any door. Dairying will always be a good industry for this country. To have a profitable dairy business and increase your profits per cow, the following rules should be taken into consideration:

Produce better cows to cheapen production.
Test your cows individually to get rid of boarders.

Raise more feed—same hay, roots

Save labor by having good cows, good barns and using modern labor-saving utensils.

The Dominion government can supply you with individual sheets, for recording the production of your cow. Call out the loaders and only keep the money-makers. Other branches of mixed farming can be named, such as raising of a few sheep, hogs, chickens and horses.

It is probably not within the means of the average man on a farm in this country to go ahead in the establishment of any large dairy business or any other stock business. He can only handle stock to the amount of feed that he has available. But even a small beginning will bring results and a gradually increasing business will win out in the long run.

CANADA FOOD BOARD SAYS

The first half year of the Canada Food Board's activities came to an end on August 11th. It is fitting and timely to note something of what has been accomplished in that period. The board has inaugurated many measures looking to the conservation of food, and economical distribution. It has also cooperated with the Agricultural departments, federal and provincial in encouraging greater production.

The effect of these measures may be noted by the increased exports to Great Britain and her allies. In the case of beef, these exports have increased over the average exports for 1910-1914 by 25,000,000 pounds per annum or 6.75 per cent; in the case of pork (including bacon and lard) the net exports have increased by 125,000,000 pounds per annum or 7.21 per cent. It is estimated that Canada has exported at least 25 to 30 per cent more wheat during the last twelve months than could have been exported had it not been for conservation and organization of this country's food resources.

Among the measures which have been effective in accomplishing these results are the following:

Flour has been standardized and the milling extraction of wheat has been increased twice. Canada is now using 76 per cent of the wheat-berry in its standard flour.

Bakery products have been standardized and the amount of certain ingredients has been limited to prevent extravagant use, while the manufacture of other products involving an excessive use of sugar and fats has been prohibited.

A great saving of wheat has been effected by the licensing and regulating of the trade in package cereals, and the use of malt has also been limited. The use of grain for distillation of potable liquors has been prohibited, and the use of malt has also been limited.

The feeding of grain to live stock in stock yards has been regulated and the feeding to poultry of wheat fit for milling purposes has been prohibited.

The feeding of grain to live stock in stock yards has been regulated and the feeding to poultry of wheat fit for milling purposes has been prohibited.

Waste of food has been made an offense subject to heavy penalties, and municipalities have been given wide powers in checking such waste. Arrangements have been made for an abundant supply of fish, at reasonable prices, as a substitute for meat, and other foods.

Close control over importation and exportation of foodstuffs is maintained by the Canada Food Board.

PARIS, Aug. 20.—Apart from the tactical results obtained the object of which will be seen more clearly in the near future, the allied attacks between the Somme and the Aisne in the last two days, modestly called local or line straightening operations in the war office communiqué, have the important effect of keeping the enemy on the alert and preventing him from preparing a counter-offensive.

The attacks have made it impossible for General Ludendorff to regroup his troops. They have obliged him to maintain more than 120 divisions in the first line which have to be relieved constantly. At several points it has been necessary for him to increase the density of the first line. The army of General von Eben which holds the line from Carlepoint to Missy-sur-Aisne had only ten divisions in the first line on August 15. The recent French operations on that front, it is believed here, will make it necessary for General von Boehn to send him reinforcements.

PARIS, Aug. 20.—Military observers in their comment today lay stress on the importance of the operations carried out Monday east and west of the Oise. They believe that the Lassigny is about to fall and the Echo De Paris considers that the town virtually is in power of the French. L'Homme Libre says that notwithstanding the stubborn German resistance the enemy is being forced to give up territory and declares that before the operations are completed the Germans will be compelled to make another retreat. The paper says that the enemy probably will qualify such movement as wise or strategic from their point of view.

10 YEARS SENTENCE FOR DISOBEDIENCE TO ARMY ORDERS

OTTAWA, Aug. 20.—The following statement was issued from the department of militia and defense.

Orders published at the militia headquarters contain notes of the sentence of ten years penal servitude upon thirteen men who were tried by a general court martial at Toronto and found guilty to deliberate disobedience to order.

Standing general courts martial for the trial of deserters and serious cases of disobedience to orders are being constituted in every military district, and cases of deserters who do not report for duty by August 24th will be tried before these courts.
